

NAME _____ DATE _____ PERIOD _____

CIVIL LIBERTIES CASES

Directions: Use your text and the internet to match the cases with their correct description.

1.	_____	Mapp v. Ohio	A.	States must provide legal defense for persons charged with a capital crime
2.	_____	Furman v. Georgia	B.	Obscenity is not constitutionally protected
3.	_____	Lemon v. Kurtzman	C.	Bill of Rights restrained only the National Government
4.	_____	Griswold v. Connecticut	D.	Established the right to privacy in the case of a married couple using birth control
5.	_____	Near v. Minnesota	E.	Blocked the of illegally seized evidence in criminal trials
6.	_____	Powell v. Alabama	F.	States must provide n attorney for poor persons accused of a felony
7.	_____	Roe v. Wade	G.	Criminal suspects must be told their rights before questioning
8.	_____	Miranda v. Arizona	H.	Ruled that the death penalty in this case was unconstitutional
9.	_____	Roth v. United States	I.	Burning the flag is constitutionally protected
10.	_____	Barron v. Baltimore	J.	Prohibited prior restraint of a defamatory newspaper
11.	_____	United States v. Leon	K.	Burning a draft card is not constitutionally protected
12.	F	Gideon v. Wainwright	L.	Death penalty, an extreme sanction suitable is suitable for most extreme crimes
13.	_____	United States v. O'Brien	M.	What is obscene should be determined by local standards
14.	_____	Miller v. California	N.	Unconstitutional for a state to require an organizations membership list
15.	_____	Texas v. Johnson	O.	Extended the right to privacy in the case of abortion
16.	_____	New York Times v. Sullivan	P.	Official prayers in public schools declared unconstitutional
17.	_____	NAACP v. Alabama	Q.	Financial aid to church related schools must serve a secular purpose
18.	_____	Engel v. Vitale	R.	Creates the good faith rule to the exclusionary clause
19.	_____	Gregg v. Georgia	S.	Right to criticize the government is not slander